Rukmani,

Beauty is not only what you see, it's what you feel. It's the way you feel about the way you look. It's the way you feel about the way you live.

There are no deep truths, only deep feelings. The only way to find the truth is to feel it. The only way to find the truth is to feel it.

The beauty of a woman is not to be seen from a distance, but when she walks towards you, and the way she walks, the way she looks, the way she talks.
